

Professional Development Proration Charts

January 2022

Beginning January 1, 2022, in order to earn credit for the Professional Development indicators for Great Start to Quality, all professional development for all staff must be approved and taken through MiRegistry. Training in MiRegistry must be delivered by an approved trainer/training sponsor and the content must be approved and aligned to the relevant Core Knowledge and Competencies. This provides for a measure of quality assurance and supports the professionalism of the workforce. In addition, taking training through MiRegistry will reduce membership processing times significantly and will allow training to appear on an individual's Learning Record as soon as attendance is recorded.

Great Start to Quality prorates the amount of professional development hours required if

- A staff member was hired within the last year (12 months)
- The program opened within the last year (12 months)

Refer to the following charts to determine the number of clock hours needed for staff hired within the last year and/or for programs opened within the last year.
